Antique & Vintage Silver Plate Flatware Sets

Our vintage and antique silver plate flatware sets with eight or twelve place settings are guaranteed to be inspected, cleaned and polished, and complete.

Shiny antique and vintage objects are comforting, connecting us with eras that have influenced history, society's changes and design. We search for those pieces of luxury, sustainable finds in antique and vintage treasures, listing tabletop treasures that can kick-start a conversation. Our collections include carefully-curated, elevated and refined pieces in antique and vintage silver and silver plate, in depression and elegant glass, and in tableware with rich histories.

Our process on bringing beautiful, full and complete sets of antique and vintage silver plate flatware back to life begins with the estate treasure hunt, to inspection, to cleaning and polishing, to rating each set, to writing true descriptions, and finally to shipping your found treasure flatware set to your door, absolutely ready to use or to gift.
